- Individual Angel Investor applicants should be aware that individual Angel Investors working together in groups is recognised as international best practice and offers a new model for risk management, diversification and greater networking opportunities with other active Angel Investors. If you are interested in joining one of the active and accredited Australian Angel Investor groups, please let us know and we can direct you to a group near you. Accredited groups are separate legal entities to AAAI and have individual member fees. AAAI membership is discounted via accredited groups as our commitment to supporting group operations. In this case, AAAI fees are then paid to AAAI indirectly as a Group annual fee.
-  Individual Angel Investor applicants are eligible to apply for Fellow of the Association accreditation which recognises your level of experience in working with entrepreneurial new ventures and successfully growing their economic value. Fellow members are trusted nationally and internationally for their experience, knowledge and commitment to advancing the Angel Investment activity as a credible investment asset class.
